The Trinity Trust River Rats Host Trails of the Trinity

DALLAS, Texas (August 9, 2010) – On June 16, more than 100 guests enjoyed Mexican food, margaritas, and music for The Trinity Trust River Rats’ summer event, “Trails of the Trinity.” Sponsored by Colliers International, the event featured the many trails part of The Trinity project, with information about the Trinity Strand Trail, Groundwork Dallas, and the White Rock Lake spine trail. Classical guitarist Daniel Rodriguez played music by the pool at the Plaza II at Turtle Creek while attendees mingled and enjoyed bites provided by On The Border.

Named the spine trail, this 12-mile planned trail will connect White Rock Lake down south to the Trinity River Audubon Center through the Great Trinity Forest, which consists of 6,000 acres of hardwood forests.

Members learned more about River Rats memberships are $100 per individual or couple. Membership benefits include access to The Trinity Trust lecture series, which features prominent speakers. Members are also invited to exclusive events, canoe trips down the Trinity River and hikes through the Great Trinity Forest. People can join online at www.thetrinitytrust.org or by calling Tierney Kaufman at 214.740.1616.

About The Trinity Trust Foundation and The Trinity Center:

The Trinity Trust raises private funds and public awareness to implement the Balanced Vision Plan for The Trinity project in conjunction with the City of Dallas. The Trinity Trust has established The Trinity Center as the gathering place for all civic and non-profit groups working to revitalize the Trinity River in Dallas. It houses the offices of The Trinity Trust Foundation, Texas Horse Park, Groundwork Dallas and Trinity Strand Trail, and hosts meetings, workshops and events for these organizations and the Trinity Commons Foundation. The Trinity Center facilitates collaboration between these entities and the City of Dallas and encourages seamless integration of all the components of The Trinity project. More information can be found by calling 214.740.1616, by emailing info@thetrinitytrust.org, or by visiting www.thetrinitytrust.org.
